

Moneys received and expended.

moneys by him deposited and of all checks by him drawn. He shall keep a regular and fair account in a book or books, in folio, of all moneys by him received and expended on account of the said corporation and shall annually and oftener if required by the Mayor lay before him a particular account of his receipts and expenditures accompanied with proper vouchers, his bank book and returned crossed checks. He shall reckon his annual account of receipts and expenditures in a book to be kept especially for that purpose. In addition to the foregoing the City Register shall also perform such other duties pertaining to the proper administration of the duties of his office as may be required of him by the ordinances of said city. In the event of any wilful neglect of duty, or in case of any misconduct, misbehavior or malfeasance in office, upon his conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, or any other court having jurisdiction in the premises, his office shall be deemed vacant, and said Board of Aldermen shall thereupon appoint some other person having the qualifications hereinbefore prescribed for the office of City Register to fill out the unexpired term of the person so convicted. The term of office of the person so elected City Register shall begin on the first Monday of May next after his election, and shall continue until his successor in office is duly elected and qualified.

Term of office.

City constables or policemen.

181. The Mayor shall appoint such number of city constables or policemen as may from time to time be provided for by ordinance, who, within the police limits of the said city, shall have all the powers possessed by constables in this State, except as to the collection of debts, and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by ordinance, and shall not be entitled to receive any fees, costs or other emoluments; all other officers of the corporation not herein named, who shall be deemed necessary to execute the laws and ordinances of the corporation whose officers are now or may hereafter be provided for by law or by ordinance, order or resolution of the Board of Aldermen, shall be appointed by the Mayor at the usual time of making appointments or at such time as the ordinances may prescribe, and they and all officers herein named shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed from time to time by the ordinances of the corporation, and the Mayor shall have the power and authority to remove from office any city constable or other officer who may be found inefficient, incompetent or incapable, or who may be guilty of any misconduct or malfeasance in office, or who is negligent in the performance of his duties.

Right to remove from office.

182. The appointment of all officers provided for in the next preceding section shall be subject to confirmation by a